

Moving Through Nets

The Physical and Social Dimensions of Travel - Selected Papers from the 10th International Conference on Travel Behaviour Research

Kay W. Axhausen

About the Book

This volume is based on selected papers presented at the triennial IATBR (International Association for Travel Behavior Research) conference in August 2003. We also published the previous four volumes in this series (by Hensher, Mahmassani, Ortuzar, Stopher); the Hensher volume included a paper by Nobel Prizewinner Dan McFadden and sold out its initial print run.
